

Beverly Whittington

(125) 456-7890 | beverly@email.com | San Francisco, CA 98765 | LinkedIn

Substitute Teacher with strong experience providing math instruction in San Francisco high schools. Skilled at tailoring lesson plans to the needs of students with SEN and English as a second Language. Draw on broad knowledge of the math curriculum to quickly generate lesson plans when called in on short notice. Master of Science in Education.

Education

Master of Science (MS)

Education

California State University,
East Bay, CA

Bachelor of Science (BS) - Mathematics

San Francisco State University,
San Francisco, CA

Key Skills

- Classroom Management
- Creative Problem-Solving
- Differentiated Learning
- Mathematics
- Positive Behavior Management
- Special Education
- Student Records Management
- Support Staff Direction & Deployment

Professional Experience

Substitute Teacher

San Francisco Unified School District, San Francisco, CA |
September 2015 to Present

- Deliver high-quality math lessons to grades 9-12 at various high schools
- Maintain 94% average approval rate with permanent teachers
- Adapt teaching strategies to each student's requirements, including those with barriers to Learning
- Use existing schemes of work to plan last-minute sessions when cover plans aren't available
- Apply effective classroom management methods to ensure students behave and engage with each lesson
- Set clear expectations for students, and maintain and enforce all classroom rules

Math Teacher

Gateway High School, San Francisco, CA | September 2009 to July 2015

[High school with 400 students and an award-winning math and science program]

- Planned differentiated schemes of work and individual lesson plans pitched to all ability levels
- Undertook formal and informal assessments to track student progress and inform planning
- Trained new teachers on effective classroom management and lesson delivery
- Ran an extracurricular club to drive student engagement and nurture talent