

Anna Johnson

A Special Education Teacher with 10+ years of experience, specializing in curriculum development, ISP interventions, and program management. A strong history of building and managing multidisciplinary teams to deliver quality education to diverse student populations. Adept at leading the development of education programs to drive student success.

Professional Experience

Lead Special Education Teacher

Austin West Elementary, Austin, TX | September 2016- Present

- Oversee the development of special education curriculum for students with mental and physical disabilities, including intellectual disabilities, autism spectrum disorder, and hearing impairments
- Manage a team of seven special education teachers, analyze student progress, evaluated teaching performance, and provide coaching and mentorship
- Support the transition to E-learning environments during Covid-19 and coordinate with teachers and parents to implement Zoom classroom instruction
- Build learning environments centered on diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) to facilitate a safe learning experience that encapsulates cultural awareness

Special Education Teacher

Austin County Elementary, Austin TX | September 2011 - September 2016

- Provided special education instruction to small groups of students with learning disorders, which included tailoring curriculum based on student needs and performance
- Created individualized education plans (IEPs) and communicated with parents and psychologists to resolve conflicts and crises

123 Your Street,
Austin, TX 12345
anna.johnson@example.com
(123) 456-7890

Education

Bachelor of Science (B.S.)

Special Education

University of Austin, Austin, TX September
2007-May 2011

Key Skills

- Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI)
- Curriculum Development
- ♦ Special Education
- Program Management
- E-learning

Certifications

- Special Education Certification
(K-8), State of Texas, 2021