

Professional Experience

Service Technician

Clean Energy Solutions Inc., Philadelphia, PA | May 2017 - Present

- Serve an the Energy Efficiency team to support client-sponsored energy projects, including conducting assessments of residential homes to determine insulation levels
- Motivate homeowners to undertake specific energy-saving measures, provide insights on energy-efficient technologies, and educate clients on utility programs, resulting in a reduction of over 300K kilowatt hours for customers
- Perform root cause analysis to identify solutions to technical issues for HVAC equipment, including heating, ventilation, and air conditioning systems

Service Technician

HVAC Maintenance Pros,, Philadelphia, PA | May 2015 - May 2017

- Gathered and analyzed energy usage data and physical characteristics of residential buildings, specified recommendations for energy-efficient improvements, and installed HVAC systems for residential customers
- Performed equipment audits and maintenance for air conditioning, heating, and cooling systems, which included troubleshooting mechanical and electrical issues

Education

Associate of Applied Science (A.A.S.) HVAC

Temple University, Philadelphia, PA | September 2013 - May 2015

Cameron
Malfara

123 Carpenter Street,
Philadelphia, PA, 12345
cameronmalfara@example.com
(123) 456-7890

A dynamic Service Technician with seven years of experience within the energy field, specializing in HVAC equipment, energy technology, and technical support. A strong history of performing complex equipment maintenance for homeowners and enterprise customers.

Key Skills

- HVAC Equipment
- Root Cause Analysis
- Customer Service
- Technical Support
- Equipment Maintenance