

ROGER KLEIN

A Certified Nursing Assistant with entry-level experience specializing in patient management, interpersonal communication, empathetic care, and medical record keeping. A proven track record of monitoring patient symptoms, vital signs, and conditions in coordination with registered nurses. Adept at driving process improvement efforts for hospital operations.

123 Your Street,
Boston, MA 12345
rogerklein@example.com
(123)456-7390

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

CERTIFIED NURSING ASSISTANT PROGRAM

JVS Boston, Boston, MA
October 2021 - December 2021

- Completed six-week training program covering all functions and responsibilities of the nursing assistant position
- Monitored patient blood pressure, provided support for ADLs, and coordinated patient transport to and from ambulances with supervising nurses
- Ensured compliance with health and safety regulations during Covid-19, including room sterilization and testing protocols
- Wrote documentation for nursing teams on patient symptoms and condition

ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT

Dr. Rob Ludwig Medical Practice,
Boston, MA
July 2020-October 2021

- Provided administrative support to physicians, registered nurses, and nursing assistants in a private medical practice, which included maintaining medical records, scheduling appointments, and transferring patient calls to appropriate team members
- Managed calendars for three physicians, contacted patients regarding scheduling conflicts, and developed positive relationships with clients

EDUCATION

High School Diploma
Amherst High School, Amherst, MA
September 2016 - June 2020

KEY SKILLS

- Vital Signs
- Patient Monitoring
- Team Collaboration
- Medical Terminology
- Health and Safety Protocols

CERTIFICATIONS

- Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA),
JVS Boston, 2021