

Professional Experience

Patient Care Technician

Newark Hospital, Newark, NJ | June 2019 - Present

- Provide education to patients on treatment plans, medications, symptoms, and diagnosis in coordination with healthcare teams for a 200-bed hospital
- Monitor vital signs, blood pressure, pain levels, and reactions to treatment and therapy, identify findings, and provide reports to nursing team members
- Gather patient samples for laboratory testing, organize and label specimens, and ensure compliance with lab safety protocols
- Provide training to new patient care technicians and nursing assistants on Covid-19 safety protocols, hospital procedures, and patient care standards

Patient Care Technician

Newark Medical Center, Newark, NJ | May 2017 - June 2019

- Delivered support to healthcare teams and nurses for patient intake and discharge, which included gathering information on medical histories and coordinating patient transport
- Tracked and maintained medical diagnostic equipment, organized personal possessions for patients, and cleaned hospital rooms in compliance with safety standards

Education

High School Diploma

Newark High School, Newark, NJ | September 2012 - June 2016

Certifications

- ◆ Certified Patient Care Technician (CPCT), University of Cincinnati, 2017
- ◆ Basic Life Support (BLS), 2017

Calvin
Brown

123 Your Street.
Newark, NJ 12345
calvinbrown@example.com
(123)456-7890

A Patient Care Technician with five years of clinical experience, specializing in phlebotomy, crisis management, patient assessment, and ADLs. A proven track record of collaborating with cross-functional healthcare teams to deliver high-quality patient-centered care. Adept at using conflict resolution techniques to manage high-stress situations with combative patients.

Key Skills

- Healthcare Services
- Patient Management
- Communication
- Equipment Maintenance
- Electronic Medical Records (EHR)