

Kelly Morrison

123 Your Street, San Francisco, CA 12345
kellymorrison@example.com
(123) 456-7890

A licensed Physical Therapist with 10+ years of clinical experience, specializing in providing innovative physical treatment to patients suffering from chronic pelvic pain syndrome (CPPS). Adept at performing comprehensive patient evaluations to determine an accurate diagnosis and develop optimal treatment plans to achieve patient goals.

Education

Doctor of Physical Therapy (DPT)

University of San Francisco,
San Francisco, CA
September 2007 ■ May 2011

Master of Science (M.S.) Physical Therapy

University of San Francisco,
San Francisco, CA
May 2005 • May 2007

Key Skills

- Chronic Pelvic Pain Syndrome (CPPS)
- ◆ Orthopedic Rehabilitation
- Treatment Planning
- Patient Assessment
- Outpatient Care

Certifications

- ◆ Licensed Physical Therapist, State of California, License #12345, 2011
- ◆ Basic Life Support (BLS), American Heart Association, 2011

Associations

- ◆ American Physical Therapy Association, (APIA), Member, 2011

Professional Experience

Physical Therapist

West Light Physical Therapy, San Francisco, CA | May 2016 - Present

- Deliver physical therapy outpatient treatment to clients suffering from chronic pelvic pain syndrome (CPPS), evaluate symptoms related to bladder control, pain, and sexual function, and conduct treatment planning to relieve pain and improve quality of life
- Administer treatment to patients according to pain Levels, revise treatment plans and clinical approaches based on progress, and improve positive patient outcomes by 15%
- Coordinate with interdisciplinary teams and chiropractors to guide treatment plans and employ a wide range of physical therapy modalities to drive patient recovery

Physical Therapist

San Francisco Medical, San Francisco, CA | May 2011 - May 2016

- Identified root cause of CPPS across a diverse patient population, delivered massages, and determined appropriate exercises to improve strength and functioning of pelvic floor
- Educated patients on pelvic floor function, physical therapy exercises, dietary restrictions, and at-home treatment to treat chronic pelvic pain syndrome (CPPS)