

Sarah Thompson

123 Your Street,
Pittsburgh, PA 12345
sthompson@example.com
(123) 456-7890

A CDL certified company driver with seven years of professional experience, specializing in commercial delivery, route navigation, vehicle maintenance, and materials handling. A proven track record of delivering medical device products to patients safely and efficiently. Adept at collaborating with teams and customers to provide quality service.

Key Skills

- Product Delivery
- Route Navigation
- Materials Handling
- Loading and Unloading
- Truck Driving
- Vehicle Maintenance

Professional Experience

Driver
Pittsburgh Med Device Co., Pittsburgh, PA | October 2016 - Present

- Deliver and set up medical supplies for up to 70 patients and facilities per week, including durable home medical equipment, hospital beds, oxygen tanks and concentrators, nebulizers, and wheelchairs worth $5K-$10K
- Provide customer service to 120 hospice patients per month, which includes setting up medical equipment, training patients and families on equipment use, resolving technical issues, and removing equipment when no longer in use
- Coordinate with a team of five drivers to manage large delivery volumes across the greater Pittsburgh area during holidays, weather emergencies, and on-call hours
- Perform regular vehicle and equipment maintenance

Driver
Altoona Med Devices, Pittsburgh, PA (June 2014 - October 2016)

- Transported medical devices and supplies to commercial residencies, maintained company vehicle and equipment, and coordinated with customers to schedule and execute deliveries
- Loaded, unloaded, and stocked warehouse and medical equipment

Education

High School Diploma
Altoona High School, Altoona, PA, September 2010 - June 2014

Certifications

- ◆ Commercial Driver's License (CDL), 2014