

PROFILE

Self-starting machine operator who frequently exceeds production quotes and excels in a fast-paced environment. Committed to workplace safety and has earned awards for extraordinary adherence to safety standards and practices. Strong communicator with nearly three years in production and is working towards several National Institute for Metalworking Skills certifications.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Machine Operator

Alternative Plastics, Gentry, AR | June 2020 - Present

- Identified a serious safety risk that no other employees noticed, which potentially saved five lives.
- ◆ Set up, maintained, and operated high-speed machine equipment and precision machinery used in mass production.
- ◆ Collaborated closely with coworkers to maximize efficiency and profits.
- Keep records of approved and defective units or final products.
- Prepared machines for production by equipping them with the required tools and parts.

Production Worker

Warren & Plythe Manufacturing, El Paso, TX | July 2019 - May 2020

- Met or exceeded all production quotas.
- Maintained inventory of supplies by regularly checking stock levels, placing orders, and anticipating needed supplies.
- Kept a clean and safe work environment, according to OSHA and company standards.
- Won award for diligently adhering to safety procedures.
- Performed hourly quality audits on assigned lines.
- Spearheaded a company program that boosted employee morale.

EDUCATION

High School Diploma

Centennial High School
Bentonville, AR,
August 2015 - June 2019

Post-Secondary Certificate

National Institute For
Metalworking On-The-Job
Workshop, October 2019

KEY SKILLS

- Forklift
- Power tools
- Punctuality
- Strong verbal and written communication skills
- Warehouse safety